

Anglican-Lutheran Society

Virtual Conference 2021

Stumbling Blocks and Springboards:
Working together for forgiveness and reconciliation

The four speakers in Session One are:

The Rev Dr Will Adam, Deputy General Secretary of the Anglican Communion and its Ecumenical Adviser and Director for Unity, Faith & Order

Bishop Eero Huovinen, Lutheran Co-chair of the Lutheran-Roman Catholic International Commission on Unity

Sister Susan Wood, Roman Catholic member of the Lutheran-Roman Catholic International Commission on Unity*

Archbishop Bernard Longley, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Birmingham, Co-chair of the Anglican-Roman Catholic International Commission

*Due to unforeseen circumstances Bishop William Kenney, Co-Chair of the Commission will not be able to produce a video but we are delighted that Sister Susan, who also serves on the Commission, has been able to step in at the last moment

The live session on 21 May will be moderated and will feature responses to the recorded presentations by representatives of the international ecumenical community and participants who have submitted questions. Registered participants will be invited to address questions to the panel no later than 14 May, using a link provided when the pre-recorded videos are viewed on YouTube.

Programme for Live Session on 21 May

Starting at 14.00 GMT/UTC, finishing at 16.30. A 10-15 minute break will be included.

- Welcome by Bishop Michael Ipgrave, Anglican Co-Moderator of the Anglican-Lutheran Society

- Greeting from Archbishop Ian Ernest, Director of the Anglican Centre in Rome

- Introduction to the programme by the Revd Dr Jaakko Rusama, Lutheran Co-Moderator of the Anglican-Lutheran Society

- Bishop Jana Jeruma-Grinberga, Lutheran President of the Anglican-Lutheran Society, chairs the discussion, to include contributions from:

- Bishop Brian Farrell, Secretary of Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity

- The Rev Dr Dirk Lange, Assistant General Secretary for Ecumenical Relations, Lutheran World Federation and participants who have submitted questions arising from the pre-recorded session

Closing worship will be led by Anglican, Lutheran and Roman Catholic women

For information about the Society go to the ‘Home’ page on the Society’s website anglican-lutheran-society.org

If you are not already a member we hope you will want to join the Society. It is very easy. Just click here.